About Us

Leo Global Commodities Private Ltd. is a venture promoted by a group of individuals who have rich experience in the commodities trading and sourcing world; having been associated with it for the last 20 years. Our firm leverages their expertise to deliver hedging, trading and delivery platforms to our clients. The company was founded in 2002 and is a member of the MCX, NCDEX and National Spot exchanges. Leo Global is headquartered in Hyderabad, and has clients across India. The company has a diverse clientele; this includes small-to-large size corporates in agri-business, metals, foods and bullion trade, as well as individuals. Leo Global is a part of the Leo & UKS Group which have interests in stock broking, commodity packaging, retail distribution, hospitality and real estate as well.

Our Services

As members of the (MCX), (NCDEX), (NSE), we provide a platform to our corporate and retail clients to trade in commodity futures. The futures contracts are available for trade across a wide variety of commodities, viz, bullion, base metals, agri-commodities (seeds and edible oil), crude oil, currencies, carbon credits, etc. Leo Global has state-of-the-art facilities to ensure a secure and hassle free trading system. At Leo Global, we provide our clients with the best possible access to information, to help them make more informed decisions. Our trading desks are just a phone call away, and our trades are on call to ensure efficient trades during market hours. Along with the futures trading platform, we assist our clients in taking and giving delivery on the exchanges. The exchanges have high quality standards for all commodities which end up in delivery. This factor is encouraging more corporates to source their raw material via the exchanges. Members of the commodity exchanges are subject to strict surveillance by the Forward Markets Commission and the exchanges themselves; Leo Global is proud to have established a very dependable reputation within the system.
